Death Valley – current conditions, guided tour schedules, road conditions + more – Park Service Web Pages

See the following website page for updates – do your own research:

https://www.nps.gov/deva/planyourvisit/conditions.htm

Ranger Guided Tours – Daily in March

Check the current schedule (/deva/planyourvisit/upload/RangerProgramSchedule27.pdf) (PDF file)

Note: the schedules are posted & updated just prior to the current date.

Check the above website/calendar for events offere just prior to your trip.

While on the above webpage, click open this webpage link just before our trip for an update of the schedules plus a listing of many more Ranger led activities, lectures, evening programs, etc. These schedules will also be posted at Death Valley for daily activities. (See following page for example dated February 7-16.)

Note: Scotty's Castle remains closed from major flooding several year ago.

The Death Valley National Park Visitor Center located in Furnace Springs is an excellent source for current conditions, staff have recommended outings, maps, gift store, etc. We worth a visit during your trip.